Robby, after further discussions (which included the author of the email below), we have decided that the call tomorrow would not be worthwhile. You should draw no substantive conclusions from this - we are just trying to work through some issues at this end. Sorry about any confusion.

We do think that next week we will want to connect up with you again. Please let us know when you and Jon are available. Tuesday is out for me. Thanks. Peter

I assume we're still on for a call tomorrow at 11 and that we'll use the same call-in number as the last two times. If that is not the case, please let us know. Thanks.
